CLERGYWOMEN’S BREAKFAST
FRIDAY, JULY 3, 7:00 A.M.

The Holy Spirit: Mover and Shaker of Ideas and Actions

The Spirit presents itself to many as an enigma. Its existence is mysterious and complex, generating misunderstandings and unawareness of its true purpose. The Spirit’s ambiguous nature opens the opportunity for study to unearth the exciting truths that it holds. The Spirit is present in our world in various forms and invites us to work for climate justice, racial justice, and gender justice. It stirs us to work toward new kinships with God that are sustainable, just, and whole. The Spirit empowers, sustains, and encourages us to live out our call and ministry.

Rev. Dr. Grace Ji-Sun Kim
Associate Professor of Theology,
Earlham School of Religion

Rev. Dr. Kim will be available for book signing in the Brethren Press booth on Friday.

INSIGHT SESSION
(sponsored jointly with the Discipleship Ministries office)
FRIDAY, JULY 3, 8:30 P.M.

Intercultural Ministry; Building Culturally Diverse Faith Communities

Why are most churches still segregated by culture and language? Is it possible to build culturally and linguistically diverse and intercultural ministries today? What are the biblical and theological imperatives for intercultural ministry? This session will address questions of power in working towards intercultural congregational leadership.

For more information and to purchase tickets for the breakfast, visit www.brethren.org/ac/2020