Invocation
Rachel Witkovsky, BVS Unit #295

God of selflessness and compassion, God of mighty acts and small acts of kindness, we know you are always with us, all around us. We ask that you bless our time together this morning. Come into this place and fill it with your presence that we may understand by your closeness what it truly means to love and to serve. In your holy name we pray, Amen.