Brethren Press Partner Program

Why?

Perhaps you believe, as we do, that the Church of the Brethren has something unique to say in today's world. One of the ways to extend our witness and speak to the world with a Brethren voice is through the ministry of Christian publishing.

But in the clamor of the book-selling marketplace, how can we assure the firm financial foundation that's necessary for a strong book publishing program? That foundation is possible if we can count on purchases by a committed core of support.

How?

You are invited to become a Brethren Press Partner. As a Partner, you agree to buy Brethren Press's new books—about six to eight books and other similar resources each year. This represents a commitment of between $80 and $110 annually. You pay no money in advance. We will invoice you with the shipment of the book.

In return, you receive priority shipping of each new title at no cost to you. As a bonus, you also receive free shipping on any other Brethren Press books that you order. You still qualify for pastor and Church Library discounts.

Tell Me More!

The Brethren Press Partner program is designed to support the publishing of books like Two or Ninety-Two by Anna Mow, A Cup of Cold Water by Ken Kreider, and Shoes of Peace.

It may include children's books, books for young readers, peace books, devotionals, histories, biblical applications, and other books that speak with a Brethren voice. Our new Perspectives essay series will be included. We will also alert you to other new, non-book items that are outside your commitment.

Will You Join Us?

We invite you to say yes to this invitation. When you become a Partner, you help your denominational publishing house strengthen the church's ministry of publishing.

To sign-up, please complete the commitment form on the back of this brochure and bring it to the Brethren Press store. Or mail it in when you return from Annual Conference.

- Individual partners will receive a Partner lapel pin as a symbol of your partnership with Brethren Press.
- Libraries and congregations will receive a partnership certificate as a symbol of your partnership with Brethren Press. (This will be mailed to you.)
