

March on Washington January 27

Join fellow members of the Church of the Brethren on January 27th along with thousands of others from across the United States to send a message to Congress and the current administration that now is the time to act. Now is the time to withdrawal our troops from Iraq. In the November 7th elections Americans made clear to Congress that they want change when it comes to Iraq. On January 27th, Americans will take action to call Congress and the current administration into accountability by demanding the withdrawal of American troops from Iraq.

Church of the Brethren Members and Friends are invited to meet at the Washington City Church of the Brethren, home of the Brethren Witness/Washington Office, (337 North Carolina Ave. SE) at 10:00 am to gather for the March. At 11:00 we will assemble at the Mall to organize with all march participants. The march kicks off at 1:00

*For more information on the Jan 27 March on Washington go to: www.unitedforpeace.org or contact Brethren Witness/Washington Office.
1(800)-785-3246*

"The Church of the Brethren has called on its members to pray and give witness to the sin of violence, and has petitioned the federal government of the United States, the United Nations, and other nations and groups to seek peace by taking action to bring troops home from Iraq."

-Annual Conference 2006 Iraq Resolution quoted by Stan Noffsinger, General Secretary of the Church of the Brethren General Board