

HOLD HARMLESS WAIVER OF LIABILITY

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN GENERAL BOARD

It is agreed and understood between the Church of the Brethren General Board and any person (not employed by the General Board) who elects to participate in any General Board sponsored activity anywhere in the world that the following conditions of participation shall apply:

1. I fully understand that I may be involved in construction work such as hammering, painting, roofing, dry walling, as well as gardening such as weeding, trimming, and mowing. There have been very few injuries on previous workcamps, however, accidents can occur causing injuries including, but not limited to: scrapes, cuts, bruises, broken bones, quadriplegia, and death.
2. I will assist the leadership by informing/calling attention to situations which may cause injury for myself and/or other participants such as, defective equipment, surface conditions, not feeling well or being fatigued.
3. I accept and assume all responsibility for my personal actions and any and all risks of damage or personal injury which occur during or result from my participation.
4. Further, I hereby release, discharge and hold harmless the Church of the Brethren General Board, its coordinators, directors, staff, and agents, from any and all claims demands, damages, or causes of action, present or future, whether the same be known, anticipated or unanticipated, resulting from or arising out of my service.

I have carefully read this Hold Harmless Waiver of Liability and fully understand its content and intent.
