Opening Sentence- Lord, open our lips,
and our mouth will proclaim your praise.

Collect

God who created all humanity with the wind of the Holy Spirit, and who called together your Church with that same Spirit; meet us here in this place as we pray and prepare for our annual meeting so that we might hear your guidance in our own hearts and in the voices of our sisters and brothers; for it is in seeking the mind of Christ that we find our shared life in you. AMEN

Refrain- #457 v1 Hymnal: A Worship Book
(Tune- Old Hundredth, Text John Cennick)

Be present at our table, Lord.
Be here and everywhere adored.
These mercies bless and grant that we may live and work with thee

Psalm 51:1-12 (Book of Common Prayer)

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness;
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

Wash me through and through from my wickedness
and cleanse me from my sin

For I know my transgressions,
and my sin is ever before me.

Against you only have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight.

And so you are justified when you speak
and upright in your judgment.

Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth,
a sinner from my mother's womb.

For behold, you look for truth deep within me,
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure;
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

Make me hear of joy and gladness,
that the body you have broken may rejoice.

Hide your face from my sins
and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from your presence
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Refrain- #457 v2

We thank Thee, Lord, for this, our food,
for life and health, and every good.
Let manna to our souls be giv'n,
the Bread of Life sent down from heav'n.

Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord;
give heed to my cry;

listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence;
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Weigh my heart, summon me by night,
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I give no offense with my mouth as others do;

Psalm 90:1-12 (Book of Common Prayer)

Lord, you have been our refuge
from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.

You turn us back to the dust and say,
"Go back, O child of earth."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday
when it is past
and like a watch in the night.

You sweep us away like a dream;
we fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and flourishes;
in the evening it is dried up and withered.

For we consume away in your displeasure;
we are afraid because of your wrathful indignation.

Our iniquities you have set before you,
and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

When you are angry, all our days are gone;
we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

The span of our life is seventy years,
perhaps in strength even eighty;
yet the sum of them is but labor and sorrow,
for they pass away quickly and we are gone.

Who regards the power of your wrath?
who rightly fears your indignation?

So teach us to number our days
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

Psalms 75:1-9 (Book of Common Prayer)

We give you thanks, O God, we give you thanks,
calling upon your Name and declaring all your wonderful deeds.

"I will appoint a time," says God;
"I will judge with equity.

Though the earth and all its inhabitants are quaking,
I will make its pillars fast.

I will say to the boasters, 'Boast no more,'
and to the wicked, 'Do not toss your horns;

Do not toss your horns so high,
nor speak with a proud neck.'

For judgment is neither from the east nor from the west,
nor yet from the wilderness or the mountains.

It is God who judges;
he puts down one and lifts up another.

For in the LORD'S hand there is a cup,
full of spiced and foaming wine, which he pours out,
and all the wicked of the earth shall drink and drain the dregs.

But I will rejoice for ever;

Psalm 104:25-32 (Book of Common Prayer)

O LORD, how manifold are your works!
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number,
creatures both small and great.

There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan,
which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you
to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure for ever;
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.

you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.

"I have made a covenant with my chosen one;

I have sworn an oath to David my servant:

How long will you assail me to crush me,

They seek only to bring me down from my place of honor;
lies are their chief delight

They bless with their lips,

For God alone my soul in silence waits;

God who created all humanity with the wind of the Holy Spirit, and who called together your Church with that same Spirit; meet us here in this place as we pray and prepare for our annual meeting so that we might hear your guidance in our own hearts and in the voices of our sisters and brothers; for it is in seeking the mind of Christ that we find our shared life in you. AMEN

Refrain- #457 v1 Hymnal: A Worship Book
(Tune- Old Hundredth, Text John Cennick)

Be present at our table, Lord.
Be here and everywhere adored.
These mercies bless and grant that we may live and work with thee

Psalm 32 (Book of Common Prayer)

Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven,
and whose sin is put away!

Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt,
and in whose spirit there is no guile!

While I held my tongue, my bones withered away,
because of my groaning all day long.

For your hand was heavy upon me day and night;
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
and did not conceal my guilt.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD."
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.

Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble;
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.

You are my hiding-place;
you preserve me from trouble;
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.

"I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go;
I will guide you with my eye.

Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding;
who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
or else they will not stay near you."

Great are the tribulations of the wicked;
but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD.

Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD;
shout for joy, all who are true of heart.

Refrain- #457 v2

We thank Thee, Lord, for this, our food,
for life and health, and every good.
Let manna to our souls be giv'n,
the Bread of Life sent down from heav'n.

Psalms 104:1-25 (Book of Common Prayer)

Bless the LORD, O my soul;

O LORD my God, how excellent is your greatness!
you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak
and spread out the heavens like a curtain.

You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above;
you make the clouds your chariot;
you ride on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers
and flames of fire your servants.

You have set the earth upon its foundations,
so that it never shall move at any time.

You covered it with the Deep as with a mantle;
the waters stood higher than the mountains.

At your rebuke they fled;
at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.

They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath,
to the places you had appointed for them.

You set the limits that they should not pass;
they shall not again cover the earth.

You send the springs into the valleys;
they flow between the mountains.

All the beasts of the field drink their fill from them,
and the wild asses quench their thirst.

Beside them the birds of the air make their nests

and sing among the branches.

You water the mountains from your dwelling on high;
the earth is fully satisfied by the fruit of your works.

You make grass grow for flocks and herds
and plants to serve mankind;

That they may bring forth food from the earth,
and wine to gladden our hearts,

Oil to make a cheerful countenance,
and bread to strengthen the heart.

The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted,

In which the birds build their nests,
and in whose tops the stork makes his dwelling.

The high hills are a refuge for the mountain goats,
and the stony cliffs for the rock badgers.

You appointed the moon to mark the seasons,
and the sun knows the time of its setting.

You make darkness that it may be night,
in which all the beasts of the forest prowl.

The lions roar after their prey
and seek their food from God.

The sun rises, and they slip away
and lay themselves down in their dens.

Man goes forth to his work
and to his labor until the evening.

O LORD, how manifold are your works!
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Psalm 115:1-15 (Book of Common Prayer)

Not to us, O LORD, not to us,
but to your Name give glory;

because of your love and because of your faithfulness.

Why should the heathen say,

"Where then is their God?"

Our God is in heaven;

whatever he wills to do he does.

Their idols are silver and gold,

the work of human hands.

They have mouths, but they cannot speak;

eyes have they, but they cannot see;

They have ears but they cannot hear;

noses, but they cannot smell;

They have hands, but they cannot feel;

feet, but they cannot walk;

they make no sound with their throat.

Those who make them are like them,

and so are all who put their trust in them.

O Israel, trust in the LORD;

he is their help and their shield.

O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;

he is their help and their shield.

You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD;

he is their help and their shield.

The LORD has been mindful of us, and he will bless us;

he will bless the house of Israel;

he will bless the house of Aaron;

He will bless those who fear the LORD,
both small and great together.

May the LORD increase you more and more,
you and your children after you.

May you be blessed by the LORD,
the maker of heaven and earth.
