Fellowship of Brethren Homes

As a ministry to those who are aging and their families, the 22 retirement communities related to the Church of the Brethren are committed to providing high quality, loving care for older adults. This group, known as the Fellowship of Brethren Homes, works together on common challenges such as uncompensated care, long-term care needs, and nurturing relationships with congregations, districts and the national church.

As these retirement centers seek to fulfill their ministries, they have been required to meet industry, federal and state standards. At the same time, these facilities recognize the importance of their Brethren heritage and connect with the denomination by becoming members in the Fellowship of Brethren Homes.

Mission Statement: A collaborative ministry of Church of the Brethren retirement communities striving for excellence through collegial relationships and mutual support.
