Nomination for Brethren Historical Committee

The Brethren Historical Committee recommends Denise Kettering-Lane serve a four-year term on the committee beginning July 1, 2020.

Denise is the assistant professor of Brethren Studies at Bethany Theological Seminary. She received a BA in Religion from Ashland University in Ohio and a Masters in Theological Studies from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia and completed her PhD in Religious Studies at The University of Iowa in May 2009. While completing my PhD, I served as a research fellow at both the University of Iowa and at the Institute for European History in Mainz, Germany. Her dissertation, "Pietism and Patriarchy: Spener and Women in Seventeenth-Century German Pietism", examined the ways in which the beliefs and practices of the Pietist movement both challenged and reinforced existing gender roles in early modern Germany. She has also served as the Intern in at Brethren Historical Library and Archives and is editor of Brethren Life and Thought.
