God, through Jesus, you have provided each of us a life with purpose and belonging. Your abundance shines through our lives, from the joy and fellowship of this church community, to the love you’ve poured into each of our hearts. We may be just sheep in your flock, but you know each of us by name, and you call upon each of us to be a part of your kingdom. In Jesus, you built a gate through which we may enter into the shining, green pastures of your love. Be with us now, beckon to us today, that we may enter your fold and enjoy the abundant life you have created for us.
