Call to Worship
I thank God for each of you – for the life you have been given, for the love that is within you and for the hope you profess in Christ. Together, we are the church, the embodiment of Jesus, and for that, I am grateful. May we be mindful this morning of God, of one another, and of the opportunities we have to express our gratitude for both. As we sing, pray, and listen attentively to how God will use this time to speak to us may our heart be open to the message and have the courage to follow it through to God’s praise and our mutual encouragement. Let us worship this amazing God together.

Wrap Up Video

Scripture – Luke 17:11-19
11 On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. 12 As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, 13 they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” Then when he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Benediction

Josh: As God’s chosen ones...

All: We are chosen!

Kayla: Isn’t that amazing? God chose you.

Josh: Holy!

All: Together, we are a holy people.

Kayla: You are a Holy people.

Josh: And Beloved...

All: We are beloved

Kayla: You cannot imagine the love that God has for each of you, that we have for each of you.

Josh: So as you leave this place, chosen, holy, and beloved, may you radiate compassion and kindness, humility, meekness and patience into this world.

Kayla: May you bear with one another, forgiving one another.

Josh: Most of all, may you love. That is what binds you together.

All: And may the peace of Christ rule in our hearts.

We are thankful because we are bound together, clothed in Christ. Amen.
