Turning the World Upside Down

The Distinctive Way Brethren Read the Bible

Christina Bucher is the Carl W. Zeigler Professor Emerita of Religion at Elizabethtown College. Over the years she has taught courses in biblical studies and ancient Near Eastern texts, as well as language courses in Greek and Hebrew.

She is the author of three Covenant Bible Studies and co-editor of The Witness of the Hebrew Bible for a New Testament Church, all published by Brethren Press, and has written a Believers Church Bible Commentary on the Song of Songs. In 2018, she contributed monthly Bible studies published in Messenger.

Currently she is co-writing with Bob Neff a book on Luke and Acts, which will show how this biblical narrative informs our countercultural way of reading the Bible as Brethren. Look for this new Brethren Press book later this year.
