

WEDNESDAY OFFERING

Annual Conference: Supporting Programming for Children and Youth

One of the things that makes our denominational gathering unique is that it is an intergenerational event. Over the course of the years, the faith journeys of countless children and youth have been shaped by their experiences at Annual Conference: participating in age-appropriate faith-based activities, encountering denominational leadership, learning about denominational programs, building relationships with their peers, singing in the children's choir, and worshipping with the gathered body. Our young people are a precious gift, and we want to encourage families to bring their children and youth to Annual Conference. We rely on volunteers to plan and lead the activities for our children and youth. We try to keep the fees for these activities as modest as possible. Your generosity will help offset the basic expenses of the volunteers who plan for months in advance and then spend their week leading and caring care for our children and youth at Annual Conference.

Call to Worship

One: How good and pleasant it is when God’s people dwell together in unity.

All: We come together, drawn by God’s grace and bound by God’s love.

One: Like precious oil poured out in abundance, God’s presence flows among us.

All: Refreshing us, renewing us, and setting us apart for holy purpose.

One: Like the gentle dew that brings life to the mountains, God’s blessing rests upon those who gather in harmony.

All: Here the Lord grants blessing – life that endures forever.

One: Come, let us worship the Lord together.

All: We worship God in unity, joy, and praise. Amen.
