

HURRICANE RESPONSE 2024

DEBBY | HELENE | MILTON

Unprecedented Disasters
Historic Flooding and Tornadoes
Catastrophic in Florida and North Carolina

Photo courtesy of Senator Tim Kaine

Photo by Layne Andreana

National Weather Service, Miami, Fla.

Photo by Layne Andreana

It will take years and a large community of supporters to rebuild after the catastrophic damage from Hurricane Helene in the Southeastern District of the Church of the Brethren (particularly in Western North Carolina) and Hurricanes Helene and Milton in Florida.

The devastated area will drop from the headlines in the coming weeks or months—but rebuilding lives takes years...Please join us for the long-term.

Give now to support the Hurricane Response and Children's Disaster Services.

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right . . . let us work for the good of all . . . Galatians 9-10

Build and Send Relief Kits. Cleanup Buckets, Hygiene Kits, and Period Packs are needed immediately. Find out how to build relief kits (cwskits.org)

Keep giving for the years of Long-term Rebuilding. www.brethren.org/givehurricane response EDF/Hurricane Response, 1451 Dundee Ave., Elgin, IL 60120

Volunteer. Brethren are known for staying until the work is done. Volunteer to help rebuild homes and lives in the coming years. Contact bdm@brethren.org