INTRODUCTION TO THE 2022 REVIEW OF PASTORAL COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS PRACTICES IN THE CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

The Pastoral Compensation and Benefits Advisory Committee is a Committee of the Annual Conference of the Church of the Brethren, and is tasked to perform a 5-year review of our compensation and benefits practices.

We came to this review knowing that 77% of our pastors are serving in less than full time or less than fully compensated roles; that our churches are growing smaller, not larger; and that our overall membership is shrinking, not growing. Other considerations included the frustrations we have heard from pastors and congregations alike about trying to meet the dollar amounts in the Minimum Cash Salary Table published by our Committee every year; the pressure to perform full-time ministry on part-time pay; and the lack of a framework that would assist our congregations to participate in ministry with our pastors.

Knowing all this, the Committee decided to re-imagine the compensation and working relationships between pastors and congregations.

WE BELIEVE that every pastor should be compensated fairly for their time.

We developed a Calculator, hosted by Eder Financial (formerly Brethren Benefit Trust), that starts with what the congregation can afford to pay, includes the costs of housing, pension, and other benefits, and calculates how many hours (based on the Minimum Cash Salary Table) of average weekly pastoral time the congregation should expect for their money.

WE BELIEVE in the Priesthood of All Believers.

In at least 77% of our congregations, average weekly pastoral time won't equal the full time standard of 44 hours per week. A critical new section of this Agreement is the "Annual Shared Ministry Priorities Agreement" that helps the congregation and the pastor figure out how and where the pastor is going to spend their time, and who (what committees or persons) and how the congregation will be responsible for the other ministry needs of the church. Specific tasks are assigned for each responsibility. We recommend that it be reviewed annually. Our hope is that this review will be used to assess what did and didn't work, where ministry needs have changed and new opportunities have emerged. We see this as a tool for shared ministry and openness to the needs of the Spirit.

WE BELIEVE that ministry is enhanced when congregations and pastors effectively navigate budget and salary conversations in ways that are life-giving and affirming for both the congregation and the pastor.

We have sought to help Treasurers (and other Church Leaders) understand pastoral compensation and taxation, and the effects of compensation decisions on pastors' taxes.

To that end, we have redesigned the Annual Compensation Agreement to be easier to navigate. In addition, experience has shown us that Treasurers appreciate assistance in preparing pastors' W-2s, so we have added a section with "line-by-line" and "box-by-box" instructions for filling out the W-2. We believe it will be a helpful guide.

The Committee, as constituted during this process, which began in the fall of 2018:

(to see descriptions of fillable PDF fields, hover cursor over field)

This agreement between the _____ Church of the Brethren and _____ will begin on _____.

TERMS OF CALL TO SERVICE.

The pastor's call is for an average of _____ ministry hours per week. The call shall begin on the date stated above and will continue indefinitely, with an annual review/evaluation by the Executive Committee (or other appropriate committee) with or in consultation with the District Executive/Minister. Any changes in the terms of service will be negotiated in consultation with the District Executive/Minister and accepted by a majority vote of the Church Board and Congregation. Ninety (90) days notice shall be given in the event of a reduction in service. The "Annual Shared Ministry Priorities Agreement" shall be part of the negotiations and shall be attached to this Agreement.

TERMINATION OF CALL TO SERVICE.

By Pastor: Service may be terminated by the pastor's resignation to the Church Board, giving ninety (90) days notice, after the pastor has obtained the counsel of the District Executive/Minister. A shorter or longer notice of termination by the pastor shall be negotiated with the Church Board also in consultation with the District Executive/Minister.

By Congregation: Service may be terminated with ninety (90) days notice by the Congregation after obtaining the counsel of the District Executive/Minister. The pastor may be counseled to resign by the District Executive/Minister and/or the Executive Committee (or other appropriate committee). As a last resort, if the Church Board decides that the matter should be put before the Congregation, the service of the pastor may be terminated, unless the Congregation votes by a two-thirds majority to retain the services of the pastor.

By District Ministry Commission: Under extenuating circumstances, the District Ministry Commission is given the responsibility for considering termination of the pastor's service.

FINANCIAL TERMS.

Figures in the following section are annualized and should be pro-rated for the remainder of the current budget year. Future changes in compensation and benefits shall reflect a mutually negotiated agreement between the pastor and the Executive Committee (or other appropriate committee focusing on pastoral relations and responsible to the Church Board), and accepted by a majority vote of the Church Board and Congregation. Ninety (90) days notice shall be given in the event of a reduction in service. Major changes to this Agreement shall be made in consultation with the District Executive/Minister.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

PASTORAL HOUSING

The congregation is expected to provide a home for the pastor and their family.

I. DESIGNATED HOUSING EXCLUSION

The Designated Housing Exclusion (previously known as the Housing Allowance) is the amount the pastor designates from their cash salary to be used to provide the items (e.g., utilities, furnishings, household items, etc.) which make the home livable. Think of this amount as providing the “stuff” which goes into the “building” to make it a home.

The congregation must approve this designation in writing before the first designated housing exclusion payment is made. This amount should be reviewed each year, and can be changed prospectively throughout the year, upon the pastor's request with the congregation's written approval.

A designated housing exclusion should be requested by every pastor, regardless of whether they are living in a parsonage or in their own home. It can be up to 100% of the pastor's cash salary--after pastor's contributions to their pension and the pastor's costs for insurance are paid. There is no liability to the congregation if the pastor does not spend this money on housing.

It is the responsibility of the pastor to prove their housing expenses on their personal income tax return. The designated housing exclusion amount, provided it was spent on housing, is exempt from federal income tax but is subject to self-employment tax. The officially designated amount should be entered on the pastor's W-2 in Box 14.

II. CONGREGATION DOES NOT PROVIDE A PARSONAGE

A. The Parsonage Adjustment Amount is the cash amount added to the “Negotiated Cash Salary” or “Minimum Cash Salary Table for Pastors” amount to allow the pastor to secure housing. This amount is added to the cash salary for every pastor whose congregation does not provide a parsonage.

The amount added is equal to the average annual cost of renting a 3-bedroom home in the congregation's zip code. The pastor will owe self-employment taxes on the parsonage adjustment amount. The parsonage adjustment amount is also used in calculating the pastor's pension contributions and short- and long-term disability insurances.

This amount is added to the designated housing exclusion and entered on the pastor's W-2 in Box 14.

III. CONGREGATION PROVIDES A PARSONAGE

A. The Fair Rental Value of the Parsonage is the amount of money that the congregation could reasonably expect to receive annually if it used the parsonage as a rental home.

To calculate this amount, take into consideration:

- the actual condition of the parsonage;
- the location of the parsonage; and
- the actual cost of any utilities paid by the congregation on the pastor's behalf.

(Asking a Realtor for help is a very good idea. Zillow.com overestimates both the sale and rental values, and does not assess the actual condition of the building.)

The Fair Rental Value (or FRV) of the parsonage affects the pastor's taxes: the pastor must pay self-employment taxes on the annual FRV amount, as well as on the pastor's cash salary, including the designated housing exclusion. The FRV of the parsonage is also used in calculating the pastor's pension contributions and short- and long-term disability insurances.

B. Housing Equity Fund

Pastors living in parsonages lack the ability to acquire equity in a home, and after leaving the parsonage often have difficulty purchasing their first home. To help provide this equity, the congregation contributes 1% of the Fair Market or Sale Value of the parsonage to the pastor's Housing Equity Fund. Since 1975, the Housing Equity Fund has been held in a taxable mutual fund account for the pastor, jointly owned with the Church of the Brethren Inc.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

I. PASTORAL COMPENSATION

Includes the following items, where they are reported on IRS Form W-2, and which federal taxes apply:

- Negotiated Cash Salary: (subtract Designated Housing Exclusion Amount) W-2 Box 1; subject to federal income & self-employment taxes
- Designated Housing Exclusion: W-2 Box 14; subject to self-employment taxes
- Fair Rental Value of the Parsonage: W-2 Box 14; subject to self-employment taxes
- Parsonage Adjustment Amount: W-2 Box 14; subject to self-employment taxes
 - NOTE: Box 14 will never contain BOTH the Fair Rental Value of the Parsonage AND the Parsonage Adjustment Amount on the same W-2, unless the pastor moved out of the parsonage during the year to their own home (or vice versa).
 - NOTE: Box 14 should ALWAYS contain a Designated Housing Exclusion amount.

II. PASTORAL TAXATION

In the Church of the Brethren, pastors are not self-employed, but are rather common-law employees of the congregation who are exempt from FICA (Federal Insurance Contributions Act) but are subject to SECA (Self Employment Contributions Act).

Employers of pastors are prohibited from withholding FICA (Social Security & Medicare) taxes for them, as they do for their non-pastor employees. Thus, pastors are required to pay self-employment taxes on all income earned as pastors to contribute to Social Security & Medicare.

Employers of pastors may, however, withhold federal (and state and local, if required) income taxes for the pastor so that the pastor does not have to make estimated tax payments. This should occur upon request of the pastor and upon receipt from the pastor of IRS Form W-4.

Types of Taxes

- Federal (and State and Local) Income Taxes
- FICA (Federal Insurance Contributions Act) Taxes are taxes on Social Security and Medicare income, and are paid half by the employer and half by the employee through employer withholding.
- SECA (Self-Employment Contributions Act) Taxes are essentially both halves of FICA taxes, paid by the self-employed person. They accomplish the same result: full payment of taxes due for Social Security and Medicare for the pastor.

States and municipalities vary on whether they tax housing exclusions and parsonage adjustments.

This brief description is meant to be a resource but should not be considered tax advice. Please consult with a knowledgeable clergy tax professional.
