Congregational life can be messy and complicated. Our best intentions and our most carefully constructed solutions often run aground on the rocks of relationships. We struggle to understand why people react in the way they do. But reconsidering our congregations as emotional systems can offer us a key that helps unlock these messy and complicated interactions. Over the course of ten weeks, Circuit Rider John Fillmore will facilitate a conversation on Peter Steinke’s book as we develop a better understanding of our church family. Sessions will begin July 11th and will be held virtually from 7-8 pm EST (4-5 PST) on Tuesdays. CEUs will be available to pastors, and the Part-Time Pastor/Full-Time Church Program will provide participants a copy of the text.
