SMALL GROUPS

At NYC there are many, many small groups! Each youth participant group contains at least two adult leaders and about ten youth who meet every day to play games, discuss their faith, and debrief their experiences at NYC. Each advisor group will consist of advisors who come together every day to discuss their week at NYC, their youth ministry experiences and have conversations with other advisors. A curriculum is provided for small group leaders that includes questions, games, and additional resources.

WORKSHOPS

Each day there are many workshop options for youth and advisors to go to and participate in. We rely on various people to lead these workshops across a variety of topics and activity levels. If you select "yes" you will receive information as we get closer to NYC on how to share your workshop idea with NYC staff.
