Leadership Summit for Wellbeing FAQ

Q: Who can attend the summit?
A: All church leaders, both clergy and otherwise can attend.

Q: When will registration open?
A: Registration is now open. The registration form is available in English, Spanish, and Creole.

Q: What topics will be covered in the summit?
A: The summit approaches wellbeing holistically, and will include sessions on relational, physical, emotional, financial, and spiritual wellbeing. The sessions will be a time of teaching as well as reflection on your own personal wellbeing.

Q: How is the conference structured?
A: The conference consists of six live presentations, one plenary-type general presentation which includes Q&A and five individual sessions focused on specific aspects of wellbeing. Before these five individual sessions, attendees will be given access to the presenters’ prerecorded sessions to watch in preparation. The material in these prerecorded videos will inform the live interactive sessions.

Q: When will the summit take place?
A: The summit will be in the evenings of April 19-22, 2021, beginning at 7:00 pm EDT and typically ending around 9:00 pm EDT. A full schedule is available on the Leadership Summit for Wellbeing website: https://www.brethren.org/leadership-wellbeing/

Q: What is the registration fee?
A: Registration is $50 per person before April 10th, when the price will increase to $75.

Q: How do I access the event?
A: The summit will be held virtually as a webinar on Zoom. After registration, you will receive a link to the Zoom room to access the event. For more information on accessing a Zoom meeting, visit the summit website to find a video tutorial.

Q: Can I earn CEU credit attending the conference?
A: Yes. CEUs will be available through the Brethren Academy upon registration for the event.

Q: Can I earn CEU credit viewing the videos after the conference?
A: No. The conference will only be available live and only to registered attendees.
