

How to Count Attendance

One purpose of collecting statistics is the ability to compare numbers from year to year. Consistency is important.

Therefore, for 2020, report only pre-pandemic attendance—that is, before your worship services were disrupted.

Watch for an online survey later this year that will ask for the ways you met during the pandemic. Survey information will help us shape future data collection.