Enter Student 1, Student 2, and Classmates

T: Welcome to today's lesson, class! Today we will be learning about how to balance chemical equations!

(Groans and moans heard as the students take their seat)

S1: (facing Student 2) Hey man, are you excited about today's lesson?

S2: Nah bro, I'm probably just going to look at my phone the whole time, it's more interesting anyways.

S1: Seriously? That's all you ever do...

T: (passing papers around) All right class, I know y'all are excited about today, so I will let you get into groups. Arrange the desks in whatever fashion you like and I will be back to check on you.

Exits Teacher as desks are arranged.

C: So, did you hear about the party that's going on tomorrow? I am like, so going there.

S2: Oh for real? I wish I could go but I'm busy tomorrow with the test and all.

S1: Yeah, me too.

C: Aww come on, it's our last year here and you all want to skip the party to do some boring studying? Count me out.

S2: Err, actually I change my mind. I'll check out the party, I guess.

S1: Sorry, but no thank you.

C: Pfft, talk about boring, mister smarty-pants!

S1: It's whatever, let's just do this assignment.

Mad-lib in the background as time passes; Student 2 slowly pulls out his phone.

S1: Hey, what are you looking at?

S2: Didn't you hear about what happened in the news last night? Apparently they found something in the ocean that looks like a –

S1: Look man, I don't care. We need to work together to finish this assignment, then I will let you look at whatever you want.

S2: Jeez, all right... Bro, I'm hungry.

S1: Is this really the time for this? Lunch is in about thirty minutes.

S2: (pulls out snack) I can't wait that long! Also, did you see these awesome shoes posted on Twitter? (pulls up an image of some expensive shoes on phone) I want to get a pair of these!

C: Wow, those look really cool! I might get a pair as well.

S1: Ok guys, obviously we can't get any work done at this rate. I'm extremely disappointed in you all. Not only are you tempted easily, but because of that temptation, we can't get anything done.

C: Oh great, here comes a lecture...

S1: If you can recall from the Bible, it is said that God will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, God will provide a way out so that you can endure it.

S2: Wow, so God will help me with not being tempted by my phone and other tendencies?

S1: Precisely; after all, we are led by Jesus, not by temptation.

S2: All right! Let's finish this together.

Class finishes paperwork as Teacher comes back.

T: Ok class, did we learn anything today?

S2: You bet we did!

C: Uhh... sure.

S1: Yes, we did.

T: I'm so glad you got a chance to learn something in class today. Please hand in your papers on your way out and have a great rest of your day!

Exeunt all
