“Take the Log Out” based on Matthew 7:3-5

Call to Worship

by Rachel Witkovsky

We put the call out,
a call to join in a time of worship together.
But being “together” doesn’t look the same as it always has.

We join together now, in this time and in this space,
or maybe later today and from our homes;
or possibly Tuesday during a lunch break.

But God is with us wherever and whenever we are!
Bringing us together to worship with one another,
to celebrate God’s Holy Name,
to listen to the ancient texts,
to share the Good News,
And to encourage each other to stop, just for a moment, and look at life from a different perspective.

We are challenged to hear God’s word anew and to see God’s world with a new sense of wonder and excitement.

Let us worship the Lord;
with open ears,
with open eyes,
and with open hearts!
