Psalm 25:15-17 Lonely and afflicted

Invocation by Rachel Witkovsky

Dear God,

you are welcome in this place.

We know you are always present,

close by and listening.

Please bless this time together that we share as a community.

May we feel your presence, stronger than ever.

We bring you our offerings of hope and fear,

joy and sorrow,

togetherness and loneliness.

We offer what we can and ask you to transform us in this time together;

guide us and lead our worship,

as we learn and listen.

In your holy name we pray, Amen.
