Invitation to give and Offertory Prayer

By Becky Ullom Naugle

Invitation to give:

We doubt, just like Peter. We doubt we have what it takes. We doubt we matter. We doubt our small offering is useful. But doubt keeps us from using our God-given imagination! Our financial gifts, when combined and wrapped up in some God-given imagination, can transform the world. What will you offer today?

Offertory prayer:

God, bless these tithes and offerings. Replace our doubt with confidence that together, in your name, we can make a difference. Help us use this money to be the hands and feet of Christ in the world today. Amen.
