“Worried and Distracted,” based on Luke 10:40-42

Prayer

By Tess Koontz

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for constantly watching over us through our highs and lows, trials and triumphs, and in both darkness and light. We know your healing hand is always protecting us, and we have no reason to be afraid. God, we give up to you the struggles that are out of our control. Please offer us guidance and wisdom to free us from the tight grip of anxiety, distraction, and fear. Amen.
