“Walk with me and work with me,” Matthew 11:29 & 30

Prayer

By Eric Finet

Heavenly One, we gather here today in celebration of You. Through our praise, You lift the weight of our burdens. We feel You speaking to our hearts and souls, giving comfort and rest to all. May we continue to follow in the path You have set for us, today and forevermore. Just as you guided Your Son, so too will we be guided by the example You set for us. In Your divine Words and Name, we pray, Amen.
