Romans 12: 4 – 8, Embodying Our Gifts

Call to Worship by Kayleigh Chapman

One: We are all part of one body in Christ - each of us different - but all of us belonging to one another.

All: We are here together, called by God, to worship as one family, one body of Christ.

One: God has given each of us gifts, all different, but also all important.

All: Some of us serve, some teach, some show kindness, some give, and some lead.

One: Whatever gifts God has given us, we will be ready to use them with open hearts and for His glory.

All: We are here to use our gifts for God's glory, to build each other up, and to love like He does.

One: Let's worship together and bring all that we are before the Lord!
