Call to Worship by Tyson Hall

One: We gather here today as one body in Christ, though we have many differences.

All: We recognize our differences yet still come together as one to worship.

One: Let us recognize the gifts each one of us possess, expressed in our differences.

All: Let us use our diverse gifts to spread the warmth of God's love throughout our communities.

One: Let us come together today to celebrate our differences and worship the Lord.

All: Let us rejoice in the glory of the Lord together as one!
